

The Week In Society.

BE SWIFT.

Be swift, dear heart, in loving,
For time is brief;
And thou may'st soon along life's highway
Keep step with grief.

Be swift, dear heart, in saying
The kindly word;
When eags are sealed, thy passionate pleading
Will not be heard.

Be swift, dear heart, in doing
The gracious deed,
Lest soon they whom thou holdest
dearest
Be past the need.

Be swift, dear heart, in giving
The rare, sweet flower,
Nor wait to heap with blossoms the casket
In some sad hour.

Dear heart, be swift in loving—
Time speedeth on;
And all thy chance of blessed service
Will soon be gone.

—E. A. Lente.

The Social Calendar.

The week just closing has been a strenuous one for Society and the entertainments have been notable for their beauty and distinctiveness. Much of the gaiety has been in honor of Mr. and Mrs. James Peterson Smith's house-party, who have been accorded somewhat of a social ovation, due both to themselves and to popularity of their gracious hosts. Already there is much on the calendar for Thanksgiving week, and there is prospect of a pleasant rush. Interspersed with the other pleasures is the Home of the Friendless reception on Wednesday afternoon, which will be an opportunity for Society to give abundantly of that large charity that "doth never soil white hands."

Banquet to Mr. Brownlow.

Mr. Urey Woodson was the host at a stag dinner last evening in the grill room of the Palmer House, in farewell compliment to Mr. Louis Brownlow, formerly editor of the News-Democrat, who leaves the coming week for Washington City. Mr. Brownlow has made many friends during his ten-months' stay here and his popularity was testified to by the affair last evening. Covers were laid for 18, and the menu was an elaborate one. Many eleven toasts were given and Mr. Brownlow's response was especially happy.

Powhatan at the Kentucky.

Much interest for the coming week centers about the opera of "Powhatan" to be given by local talent at the Kentucky theater on Tuesday evening for the benefit of the Home of the Friendless. The cast includes some of the city's popular favorites in musicals and is almost a repetition of the cast of "The First Lieutenant," given here last winter for the same cause, which was greeted by a "S. R. O." house.

The complete cast is as follows:
Powhatan ..... Emmett Bagby
Pocahontas ..... Miss Anne Bradshaw
Minnihaha ..... Mrs. Elsie Bagby-Grace
Laughing Star ..... Miss Carrie Ham
Winona ..... Miss Lucette Soule

HEART TROUBLE

The heart itself has no power—no self-control. It is made to beat by a tender nerve so tiny that it is scarcely visible to the naked eye. Yet ten thousand times a day this delicate nerve must assist the heart to expand and contract.

This nerve is only one of the branches of the great sympathetic, or INSIDE, nerve system. Each branch of this system is so closely allied with the others that weakness or irregularity at any point is apt to spread. Heart trouble frequently arises from stomach trouble through sympathy, and kidney trouble may also follow. For each of these organs is operated by a branch of these same sympathetic nerves—the INSIDE NERVES. Dr. Shoop regards these nerves to be the real cause of such troubles. The remedy—known by physicians and druggists everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Restorative—is the result of years of endeavor along this very line. It does not dose the organ to deaden the pain—but it aims to go at once to the nerve—the inside nerve—the power nerve—and builds it up and strengthens it and makes it well.

Every heart sufferer may have Dr. Shoop's book of the Heart. It will be sent free, and with it you will receive the "Health Token," an intended passport to good health.

For the free book and the "Health Token" you must address Dr. Shoop, Box 717, Racine, Wis. State which book you want.

Reception to Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Fowler.

The handsome Fowler home on Broadway was the scene of a brilliant assemblage on Tuesday evening when Mrs. Laura S. Fowler received her friends from 8:30 to 11 o'clock in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Saunders A. Fowler, who have just returned from their bridal trip to the mountains of Western North Carolina. The reception hall and double parlors were most attractive in their decoration of southern smilax, which was twined about the chandeliers and stairway and festooned in garlands throughout the rooms. Chrysanthemums and carnations were the flowers used. The receiving party stood in the spacious double parlors and included: Mrs. Fowler, Mr. and Mrs. Saunders A. Fowler, Mrs. Birdie Fowler Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Pearson Noble, Mr. and Mrs. William Armour Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. William F. Bradshaw, Jr., Mrs. James White, of Athens, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Leech, Mr. and Mrs. George Langstaff, Dr. and Mrs. Victor Voris, Mrs. Thomas Long, of Hopkinsville; Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Flournoy, Mr. and Mrs. I. D. Wilcox, Mr. and Mrs. Louis M. Rieck, Mr. and Mrs. George C. Wallace; Misses Elizabeth Sinnott, Carrie Rieck, Martha Davis, Louise Cox, Lucie Barrett, of Louisville; Faith Langstaff, Belle Cave, Ethel Morrow; Messrs. William M. Rieck, Gus Thompson, Edward Bringham, Henry Rudy, Frank Davis, Algernon Coleman, and Masters John Campbell and Fowler Post.

The dining room was a pretty color-effect in white and green. The table having a white lace cover with a large crystal vase of white chrysanthemums in the center. White satin ribbons descended from the chandeliers to the table and the silver candelabra had white and green shades, while the bonbons in the cut glass dishes carried out the same tints. Mrs. Marie S. Cobb and Mrs. Elizabeth Austin received the guests in this room, assisted by Miss Reubie Cobb, Miss Aline Bagby and Miss Marie Cobb. The course-luncheon was a pretty elaboration of the white and green idea.

Several hundred guests were present during the evening, and the many handsome costumes added to the brilliancy of the scene.

Beautiful Dancing Party.

The german given by Mr. and Mrs. James Peterson Smith at the Palmer House on Wednesday evening in honor of their guests, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Rose, of Springfield, Ill., Col. R. B. Van Cleave and Miss Helen Van Cleave, of Springfield; Miss Esther Wheeler and Miss Ruth Wheeler of Lima, O., was one of the most brilliant functions in Paducah's history of dancing events. In the receiving line were: Mr. and Mrs. James Peterson Smith, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Rose, of Springfield, Ill.; Col. R. B. Van Cleave and Miss Helen Van Cleave, of Springfield, Ill.; Misses Esther and Ruth Wheeler, of Lima, O.; Mrs. Charles James, of Evansville; Mr. Wood Irwin, of Kuttawa; Miss Elizabeth Sinnott, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kiger, Mr. and Mrs. William Minnich, Mr. and Mrs. Harris Rankin, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. McPherson, Mr. and Mrs. Linnaeus Orme, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Meyers, Mr. and Mrs. Harry McElwee, Mr. and Mrs. Saunders A. Fowler, Dr. Frank Boyd, Mr. Gus Thompson, Mr. Henry Rudy, Mr. Wallace Weil.

The dining room, where the german was danced, was effectively decorated in a profusion of southern smilax, chrysanthemums and ferns. In the center was hung a large bell, which was used for the opening figure, the ribbons descending from it furnishing a favor at the "pull" of each guest. There were eight favor figures, and the favors were especially pretty and novel. The favor table was presided over by Mrs. Linnaeus Orme and Mrs. Harry McElwee. The german was skillfully led by Mr. Gus Thompson and Miss Van Cleave. The Jack-o'-lantern figure was most effective, being danced in the weird light of the Jack-o'-lantern favors. Punch was served in the hall throughout the evening, and a delightful course-luncheon in the grill-room.

The guest-list included two hundred people.

Mrs. John Little, Hostess.

Mrs. John Walthall Little was hostess at a charming card party on Friday afternoon at her home on West Jefferson street. A color-motif of pink and green was emphasized in the decorations of the pretty rooms, ferns and pink chrysanthemums being used with artistic effect. Paducah souvenir postal cards made novel and attractive tallies. The prizes were handsome pieces of china, painted by the talented hostess. Mrs. Gardner Gilbert won the first prize. For the consolation prize all the guests cut, and Mrs. Victor Voris was successful. An elaborate three-course luncheon, embodying the Thanksgiving idea, in an attractive setting of pink and green, was served after the game.

Mrs. Little's guests were: Mesdames George B. Hart, Will Minnich, John Scott, Albert Foster, David Van Culin, Hubbard Wells, George Thompson, Milton Cope, John Keller, Linnaeus Orme, Frank Barnard, Gardner Gilbert, D. G. Parks, Lillard Sanders, William Marble, James Utterback, Armour Gardner, Frank Murray of Denver; James English, Charles Hatfield, Lawrence Gleaves, W. B. Mills, Fred Rudy, A. B. Sowell, Harry McElwee, Henry Thompson, Edmund Rivers, Wynne Tully, Charles Warren, Brack Owen, Chas. Simms, L. A. Washington, David A. Flournoy, Henry Hughes, Victor Voris, Percy Paxton; Misses Mary K. Sowell, Carline Sowell, Fannie Taylor, of Wichita, Kan.; Susie Thompson, Cornie Grundy, Lizzie Chapeze, Mattie Lou McGlathery, Retta Hatfield, Claire Winston.

Mrs. McElwee's Party to Visitors.

Mrs. Harry McElwee's poppy party on Monday afternoon at her home, on Clark street, was a pretty compliment to Mrs. James A. Rose and Miss Helen Van Cleave, of Springfield, Ill. Miss Esther Wheeler and Miss Ruth Wheeler, of Lima, O., the popular guests of Mrs. James Peterson Smith.

The house was attractively decorated with vines, ferns and red and white poppies in profusion, red-shaded candles adding to the artistic effect. The poppy idea was also emphasized in the tallies and prizes. The tally cards were hand-painted poppies and all the prizes were gold-mounted mirrors, painted in poppies. Miss Ruth Wheeler and Miss Mary Lee Clark cut for the visitors' prize and Miss Wheeler won. The game prize was a tie between Miss Elizabeth Sinnott and Miss Marie Cobb and fell to Miss Cobb in the cut. Miss Esther Wheeler captured the booby prize, a miniature mirror with the poppy design. A charming two-course luncheon emphasizing the red, white and green effect was served after the game.

The guests were: Mrs. James A. Rose, of Springfield, Ill.; Mrs. Chas. James, of Evansville; Mrs. James P. Smith; Misses Helen Van Cleave, of Springfield, Ill.; Esther Wheeler, of Lima, O.; Ruth Wheeler, of Lima, O.; Mary Lee Clark, of Owensboro; Lucille Lamb, of Paris, Tenn.; Fannie Taylor, of Wichita, Kan.; Clara Thompson, Lillie Mae Winstead, Faith Langstaff, Aline Bagby, Marjorie Bagby, Sarah Sanders, Ella Sanders, Myrtle Greer, Marie Cobb, May Owen, Margaret Park, Clara Park, Margie Crumbaugh, Rubie Corbett, Ruth Weil, Mary K. Sowell, Carline Sowell, Hattie Terrell, Frances Terrell, Blanche Hills, Ethel Brooks, Elizabeth Sinnott, Susie Thompson, Retta Hatfield, Nell Holland, Mabel McNichols, Louise Cox, Cornie Grundy.

Pretty Afternoon Card Party.

Miss Elizabeth Sinnott entertained very delightfully at cards on Friday afternoon at her home on North 9th street, in honor of Miss Esther Wheeler and Miss Ruth Wheeler, of Lima, Ohio, and Miss Helen Van Cleave of Springfield, Ill. The house was very attractive in its setting, and red was the prevailing color in tallies and decorations. The first prize was won by Miss Louise Cox, a silver tray. The second prize, a plate, was captured by Miss Hattie Terrell. The booby prize, a bottle of perfume, went to Miss Lettie Powell. Miss Ruth Wheeler took the guest of honor prize, a silver jewelry box. A delicious course-luncheon was served in conclusion.

The guests were: Mesdames Jas. P. Smith, Thomas Leech, Edmund P. Noble, Saunders A. Fowler; Misses Helen Van Cleave of Springfield; Esther Wheeler of Lima; Ruth Wheeler of Lima; Lucie Barrett of Louisville; Mary Lee Clarke of Owensboro; Faith Langstaff, Clara Thompson, Lillie Mae Winstead, Ruth Weil, Margaret Park, Clara Park, Marie Cobb, Margie Crumbaugh, Myrtle Greer, Ethel Brooks, Irene Scott, Anna May Yeiser, May Davis, Letitia Powell, Ethel Morrow, Minnie Terrell, Hattie Terrell, Frances Terrell, Fannie Coleman, Rella Coleman, Sarah Sanders, Hallie Hisey, Louise Cox, Nell Holland, Frances Gould, Cherie Morton, Minnie Ratcliffe, Ella Sanders, Lula Reed, Belle Cave, Henrietta Koger, Rubie Corbett, Claribel Rieck.

Complimentary Card Parties, En Series.

Mrs. Charles Kiger's series of card parties on Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons at her home, on North Seventh street, were given in honor of her sister, Mrs. Charles James, of Evansville, and the house-guests of Mrs. James Peterson Smith, Mrs. James A. Rose and Miss Helen Van Cleave, of Springfield, Ill., and Misses Esther and Ruth Wheeler, of Lima, O. The house was a triumph of artistic effect in red and green, the color-scheme being elaborated with smilax and red carnations and ribbons carried from the chandeliers.

There were twelve tables of guests each afternoon and the tallies were dainty, painted souvenir bookmarks
